

Universität
Konstanz

Mediterranean Connections:

Spatial Configurations – Temporalities - Infrastructures

Programme of the Erasmus+ Blended Intensive Programme

Venue: University of Konstanz / Germany, Room C 336
Day	Session	Schedule & Themes
10 Oct	Introduction	17:00-19:30: Presentations by the organizers from all four universities. Introduction to Mediterranean history and to the organization of the workshop
	Welcome Dinner	20:00
11 Oct	Session 1: Frameworks and Infrastructures	09:00-09:15: Introduction to the panel topic
		09:15-09:45: Introduction to three individual themes a. Marc Gehrmann: Provincial Infrastructures and Imperial Discourse in the Roman World b. Daniel G. König: Frameworks and Infrastructures of Christian-Muslim Communication in the Medieval Mediterranean c. Alexis Drach: European Integration and the Mediterranean after World War II: a Financial History Perspective
		09:45-10:30: Student group session
		10:30-11:00: Coffee break
		11:00-11:45: Student presentations
		11:45-12:30: General debate
	Session 2: Transfer of Knowledge	13:30-13:45: Introduction to the panel topic
		13:45-14:15: Introduction to three individual themes a. Mariana Malinova: Networks of Knowledge in the Medieval Islamic Mediterranean b. Joël Chandelier: Was the Medieval Mediterranean really an area of scientific exchange? c. Daniel G. König: The Legacy of the Medieval Arabic-Latin Translation Movement
		14:15-15:00: Student group session
		15:00-15:30: Coffee break
		15:30-16:15: Student presentations
		16:15-17:00: General debate

12 Oct	Session 3: Mobility and Identity	09:00-09:15: Introduction to the panel topic
		09:15-09:45: Introduction to three individual themes a. Maya Vassileva: Mobility and Identity in the Ancient Eastern Mediterranean b. Svetla Ianeva: In Search of New Professional Perspectives across the Mediterranean: Case Studies from the 19 th -century Ottoman Balkans c. Pothiti Hantzaroula: Mobility in Times of Crisis: Holocaust and Post-Holocaust Migration to Palestine/Israel and Egypt
		09:45-10:30: Student group session
		10:30-11:00: Coffee break
		11:00-11:45: Student presentations
		11:45-12:30: General debate
13:45-14:15: Introduction to three individual themes a. Adrian Robu: Networks and Cultural Transfers in Ancient Mediterranean b. Hristo Chukurliev: The Solar Cults in the Mediterranean as Booster for the Spread of Christianity (1 st -4 th cent. CE) c. Eleni Gara: Religion, Society and Politics in the Early Modern Mediterranean
14:15-15:00: Student group session
15:00-15:30: Coffee break
15:30-16:15: Student presentations
16:15-17:00: General debate
13 Oct	Session 5: Conflicts, Trauma and Memory
		09:15-09:45: Introduction to three individual themes a. Fernando Esposito: Chronopolitics in the 18 th -20 th cent. Mezzogiorno b. Haris Exertzoglou: Violence, Trauma and State-building in the "Long War" of 1912-1923 in the Balkans and the Middle East c. Gruia Badescu: Conflict, Memory, and the Remaking of Urban Space in the 19 th and 20 th Centuries
		09:45-10:30: Student group session
		10:30-11:00: Coffee break
		11:00-11:45: Student presentations
		11:45-12:30: General debate
	Farewell Dinner	20:00
14 Oct	Final discussion	9-12, departure